

CALL FOR PAPERS

International Conference „Archives of Religious Communities in Croatia – Practical Experiences and Perspectives“

The State Archives in Šibenik and Zadar in cooperation with the Croatian State Archives and ICARUS (International Center for Archival Research) are organising an international conference „Archives of religious communities in Croatia – practical experiences and perspectives“ which will take place in Šibenik on 25th – 26th September 2014.

The conference raises questions on management, preservation and dissemination of the archival holdings of religious communities in Croatia which invite participants to actively take part in the scientific and professional debate from the standpoint of archivists, as well as from humanities, social studies and other interdisciplinary scientific fields.

Thematic areas:

- the evaluation of the archival holdings of the religious communities
- the role of public archival service in the preservation and dissemination of the archival holdings of the religious communities
- the implementation of professional standards in the preservation and dissemination of the archival holdings of the religious communities
- European experiences regarding the management and preservation of the archival holdings of the religious communities

The conference aims to provide guidelines for the preservation of the archival holdings within particular religious communities, standards and models for professional management of the archives within religious communities, as well as professional interaction and cooperation with public archival service.

We are inviting proposals for paper presentations related to the mentioned thematic areas.

Proposals for papers: Titles of proposed papers (15 min.) with an abstract of no more than 250 words should be sent to dasi@dasi.hr. The deadline for the submission of the paper proposals is March 15, 2014. We hope to contact those whose papers have been accepted by June 30, 2014.

Accommodation: Those requiring local hotel accommodation must make their own bookings.
